

Conjunctions to Express Time, Place and Cause

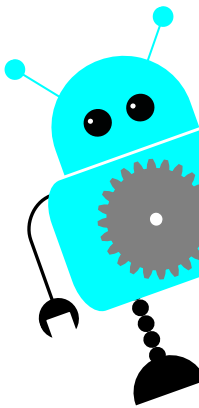

Conjunctions are words that join clauses together in a sentence. A conjunction can be used at the start or in the middle of a sentence. Conjunctions can be used to express time, place and cause.

- 1) Sort the conjunctions into the table to show if they can be used to express time, place or cause.

Time	Place	Cause

so	during	as
wherever	while	due to
after	where	later
until	before	because

- 2) Circle the most suitable conjunction to complete each sentence.

Due to / Before the heavy snow that fell during the night, school is closed today.

We have to travel to an ice rink that is further away since / so our local rink closed.

I ate my delicious lunch while / after going for a long bike ride.

Dad replied to his emails later / while I completed my homework.

After / During my trumpet lesson, I walked home.

Amina takes her mobile phone with her where / wherever she goes.

Joshua was only allowed to go to the park after / so he'd cleaned his rabbit's hutch.

Where / Because we went camping there was a peaceful lake.

We used the lift to get to our hotel room until / because it was on the twentieth floor.

