

Writing Sentences with 'and'

A conjunction is a joining word. The conjunction 'and' can be used to join two words together e.g. cats and dogs. Using 'and' can also join two clauses together e.g. I went to the park and played on the swings.

1) Join the parts of the sentence using the conjunction 'and'.

Millie went to school

and

painting at the weekend.

Tommy put on his hat

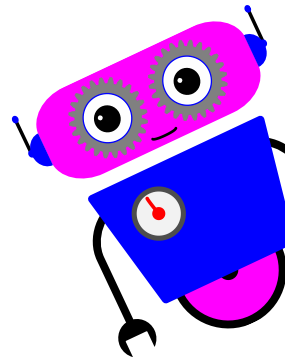

and

she worked hard all day.

I like drawing

and

scarf to keep him warm.

2) Use 'and' to join the sentences together and write your new sentence on the line.

Asha played football. She had fun.

The girls are good friends. They like to play together.

The witch rides a broomstick. She has a black cat.

We went to the zoo. We saw lots of animals.

Nicky got out of bed. He put his clothes on.

