

Plural and Possessive 's'

Plural 's': Plural means more than one. The letter 's' can be added to many nouns to form a plural e.g. cat + s = cats.

Possessive 's': The letter 's' at the end of a word can be used with an apostrophe to show belonging e.g. the dog's bone, the girls' coats.

1) Tick to show whether the word in bold is plural or possessive 's'.

	Plural	Possessive
I had fun riding my friend's bike.
The man's dog is called Patch.
The drivers checked that their cars were ready for the race.
Rasheed's favourite sports are football and swimming.
My brother's books are in a tidy pile.
We saw a family of lemurs at the zoo.
The children collected points at sports day.
The doctors' surgery was very busy.

2) Choose the correct word to complete each sentence.

Put the coins in your _____ money box.	sisters	sister's
The _____ trainers were covered in mud.	boys	boys'
The _____ were all different colours.	crayons	crayon's
We collected the _____ eggs this morning.	chickens	chickens'
There are lots of new _____ in our town.	houses	house's
Two _____ pulled into the station at the same time.	trains	trains'
Our _____ gardens are full of colourful flowers.	neighbours	neighbours'
A group of _____ swam across the lake.	ducks	ducks'

