

Statements, Questions, Exclamations and Commands

There are four sentence types: statements, questions, exclamations and commands.

A statement tells you a fact, an idea or an opinion e.g. Hens lay eggs.

A question is what we ask to find something out e.g. What is the time?

An exclamation shows strong emotion or excitement e.g. What a great picture!

A command gives a clear instruction e.g. Clean your shoes.

1) Draw a line to match each sentence to the correct sentence type.

What amazing weather we had today	statement
Finish your homework	question
Who is the tallest in your class	exclamation
There are twelve months in one year	command

2) Read each sentence and decide if it is a statement, question, exclamation or command.
Write your answer in the box.

	Is the sentence a statement, question, exclamation or command?
Brush your hair.
What a fantastic day out we've had!
Put your trainers in the cupboard.
Did you enjoy your trip to the beach?
The crayons are on the table.
Tidy your bedroom.

3) Add the missing punctuation to the sentences below.

Have you ever visited London _____

How wonderful to ride on an elephant _____

Eat your dinner _____

China is a country in Asia _____

