

Subjects and Objects

A sentence has a subject and a verb but it may also have an object. The subject is the person or thing that performs the verb. The object is the person or thing that the verb is done to.

The object usually comes after the verb. In the sentence 'The snake ate the mouse.' The snake is the subject because it ate the mouse and the mouse is the object because it was the thing that was eaten by the snake.

1) In the sentences below, underline the subject.

Cautiously, Aiden peered around the door.

The kitten chased the colourful ball.

Late last night, the yacht sailed into the harbour.

My brother bought a sandwich from the supermarket.

Next week, Ahmed plans to meet Rashid in Leeds.

I rode my bicycle.

2) In the sentences below, underline the object.

Timothy accidentally broke the window.

The hikers carried large rucksacks.

Daisy baked biscuits for charity.

Arlo returned the library book.

The girl threw a paper aeroplane.

My grandmother created a bouquet of flowers.

3) Label each box with S (subject), O (object) or V (verb).

↓	↓	↓

Daniel washed the dishes.

↓	↓	↓

The family picked wildflowers in the woods.

